

Peter Bajada

Consultant

Email: peter.bajada@oxera.com

Tel: +32 (0) 2895 9083

Languages: English and Maltese

Expertise

- Commercial Disputes and International Arbitration
- Regulation
- Sustainability and Climate Change

Sectors

- Energy
- Telecoms, Media and Technology

Profile

Peter is a member of Oxera's Finance & Valuation team. Since joining Oxera in 2019, Peter's work has cut across multiple sectors, including Energy and Telecoms, Media & Technology. His work has focused on impact assessments, cost of capital estimation, damages quantification, and risk assessment.

Peter joined Oxera after completing his Masters in Economics at the University of Cambridge. Prior to joining Oxera, Peter worked in the advisory team at PricewaterhouseCoopers.

Selected professional experience

- RIIO-2 cost of debt advice to gas and electricity distribution networks (2021–)
- RIIO-2 cost of equity advice to the UK Energy Networks Association (2021–)
- Quantifying damages due to a financial institution regarding PPI remediation (2020–)
- Advice to BT and Openreach on the wholesale fixed telecoms market review—in particular, undertaking a risk analysis of BT's investment in its fibre to the premises (FTTP) network and the implications for regulation (2020–21)
- Impact assessment and policy advice on reaching net zero carbon emissions in a European jurisdiction by 2030 (2019–21)
- Advice to a UK water company on cost of debt issues in the context of the PR19 (2020)

Qualifications

- MPhil Economics, University of Cambridge, UK
- BCom (Hons) Economics, University of Malta, Malta